P. 488.

Cyrenus Parke had a brother, named Joseph, who, after the war, lived on his brother's place near neighbor to Wm Harris. As he was a whig and patriot in sentiment, he and the Harrises were very amicable in their relations, until a misunderstanding arose between them in regard to some business transaction, when a gradual coolness ensued, which, for a while, estranged them. One morning Joseph called upon William, manifesting a disposition to conciliate and make friends again. In great good humor, he related several anecdotes, and border adventures, until he thought his listener had reached a genial frame of mind; when leading his way quietly and gradually to the subject, he asked William if he would not be willing to overlook the past, and forgive his brother Cyrenus, if the latter would make suitable acknowledgment, and ask for forgiveness. Springing from his seat in a tempest of rage, the old scout replied with an oath: "No, he tried to kill me in cold blood, and if I ever get a chance I'll shoot him." Joseph still pressed and argued the matter until Harris's suspicions were aroused and he exclaimed: "Joseph, Cyrenus is at your house, and if he wants to live he had better keep out of my way."

The next night Cyrenus made his escape to Canada. The popular tradition that Harris tracked him to the St. Lawrence river and shot him as he was crossing that stream, is declared by the family to be without warrant and untrue.

P. 402

Tradition does not identify any of the residents of the Queensbury patent as connected with the seizure of the post at the head of Lake George, but a legend in the Parke family, on the south side of the river, associates the name of their ancestor with this event.

Foot note:— Across the river and nearly opposite the village of Sandy Hill, but quite a little distance from the bank of the stream in a sequestered nook, is a small burying ground where many members of the Parke family are gathered. One of the modest marble slabs here marking the resting place of the dead is one containing the following inscription, viz:

In Memory of.
Daniel Parks
who departed this life
March the 3. 1818, aged 78,
One of the veterans of the Revolutionary war.
he was the man that took the key from the British officer at Lake George in 1775.

P. 424

We next come to the consideration of the Parks narrative. It is a family tradition, strongly corroborated by concurrent events, and also by corresponding traditions in neighboring families, and it is given here simply for what it is worth, leaving it to the candid and impartial reader, who has no selfish ends to serve, to weigh and estimate fairly the merits of the story. The connection of the Parks family with the Glen patent on the south side of the river from Glen's falls village, has already been narrated, the indubitable proof of which lends almost conclusive testimony to the truth of this narrative. "There was, in the British army, a captain by the name of Daniel Parks, who took an active part in quelling and keeping in subjection, the savage, original inhabitants of the American continent long before the Revolution, who lived and died in some of the southern states, probably in Virginia, and who had a son by the name of Daniel Parks. The latter removed and settled in Salisbury, Conn., where he resided till within a few years of the Revolution, when he emigrated to Glen's falls, N.Y., where he purchased a tract of 800 acres of land, situated along the south bank of the Hudson's river, and settled and built the first mills at that place. About the year 1777, while the revolutionary war was in progress, and the country was swarming with marauding bands of savages and Tories, who demanded the keys to his desk, which contained his papers, etc., which the old man refused to deliver up. Thereupon one of the band clucked him, at which a scuffle ensued, which resulted in getting the old man down, when one of the party drew up and shot him. He was supposed at that time to be about 75 years of age, & died in defending himself against British aggression.

Robert Parks (or Sir Robert Parks as sometimes called) was born in Preston, Eng. in 1580. He and his family sailed from Cowes, Isle of Wight, for America, on board the "Arabella," with twenty six passengers, Nov. 29, 1630 and landed in Boston June 11, 1630. He lived for a time in Roxbury. Solomon Augustus Parks, a director of Glens Falls Paper Mill Company

Eldest son of Banzilla and Susan Maria (Burgett) Parks
born Moreau, Saratoga Co., Feb. 22, 1827

The Parks family among earliest settlers of town of Moreau, coming here from Salisbury, Conn., between 1755 + 1766, when Elijah Parks & several of his sons, some of them already married, purchased 800 acres at So. Glens Falls, whereon they built their dwelling houses & a saw mill

Early in the summer of 1776 the Tories & Indians attacked the house of Elijah Parks. Known as the "Old Castle," & in the fight that followed, the owner of the house and his son Elisha were both killed, and the other sons with their wives & children only escaped by flight. That raid broke up the Parks settlement, & the survivors removed within the protection of Fort Edward, only returning to their lands in Moreau after all danger was passed

Elijah Parks's son Daniel was the father of Solomon, the grandfather of the subject of this sketch. Solomon Parks was born in the town of Half Moon, on the present site of the village of Waterford, and about 1765, when two months old, his father removed to what was then known as Wing's Falls, now Glens Falls, where he built the first mill ever erected in that vicinity.

At So. Glens Falls, Banzilla Parks (father) was born. A few years after his marriage to Susan M. Burgett, he located at Sandy Hill, Warren County, where he died Jan. 4, 1866, in his 75th year. His children were

Veteran Railway Man Passes Away

Large Number Attends Funeral of Marshall Parks

Jan. 9, 1939

NAPANEE, Jan. 9—Rev. Dr. R. T. Richards conducted the funeral of the late Marshall Parks, which was held from the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Greer, Water Street, on Monday afternoon and after the service the remains were placed in Riverside vault. Interment will be in the spring. Beautiful floral tributes banked the casket.

A man of sterling character and a very congenial disposition, Mr. Parks had a host of friends extending from Deseronto to Kingston. A son of the late Mr. and Mrs. John Parks, he was born in the Township of Rawdon, in Hastings County, in the year 1857, and after receiving his rural school education attended the high school in Stirling.

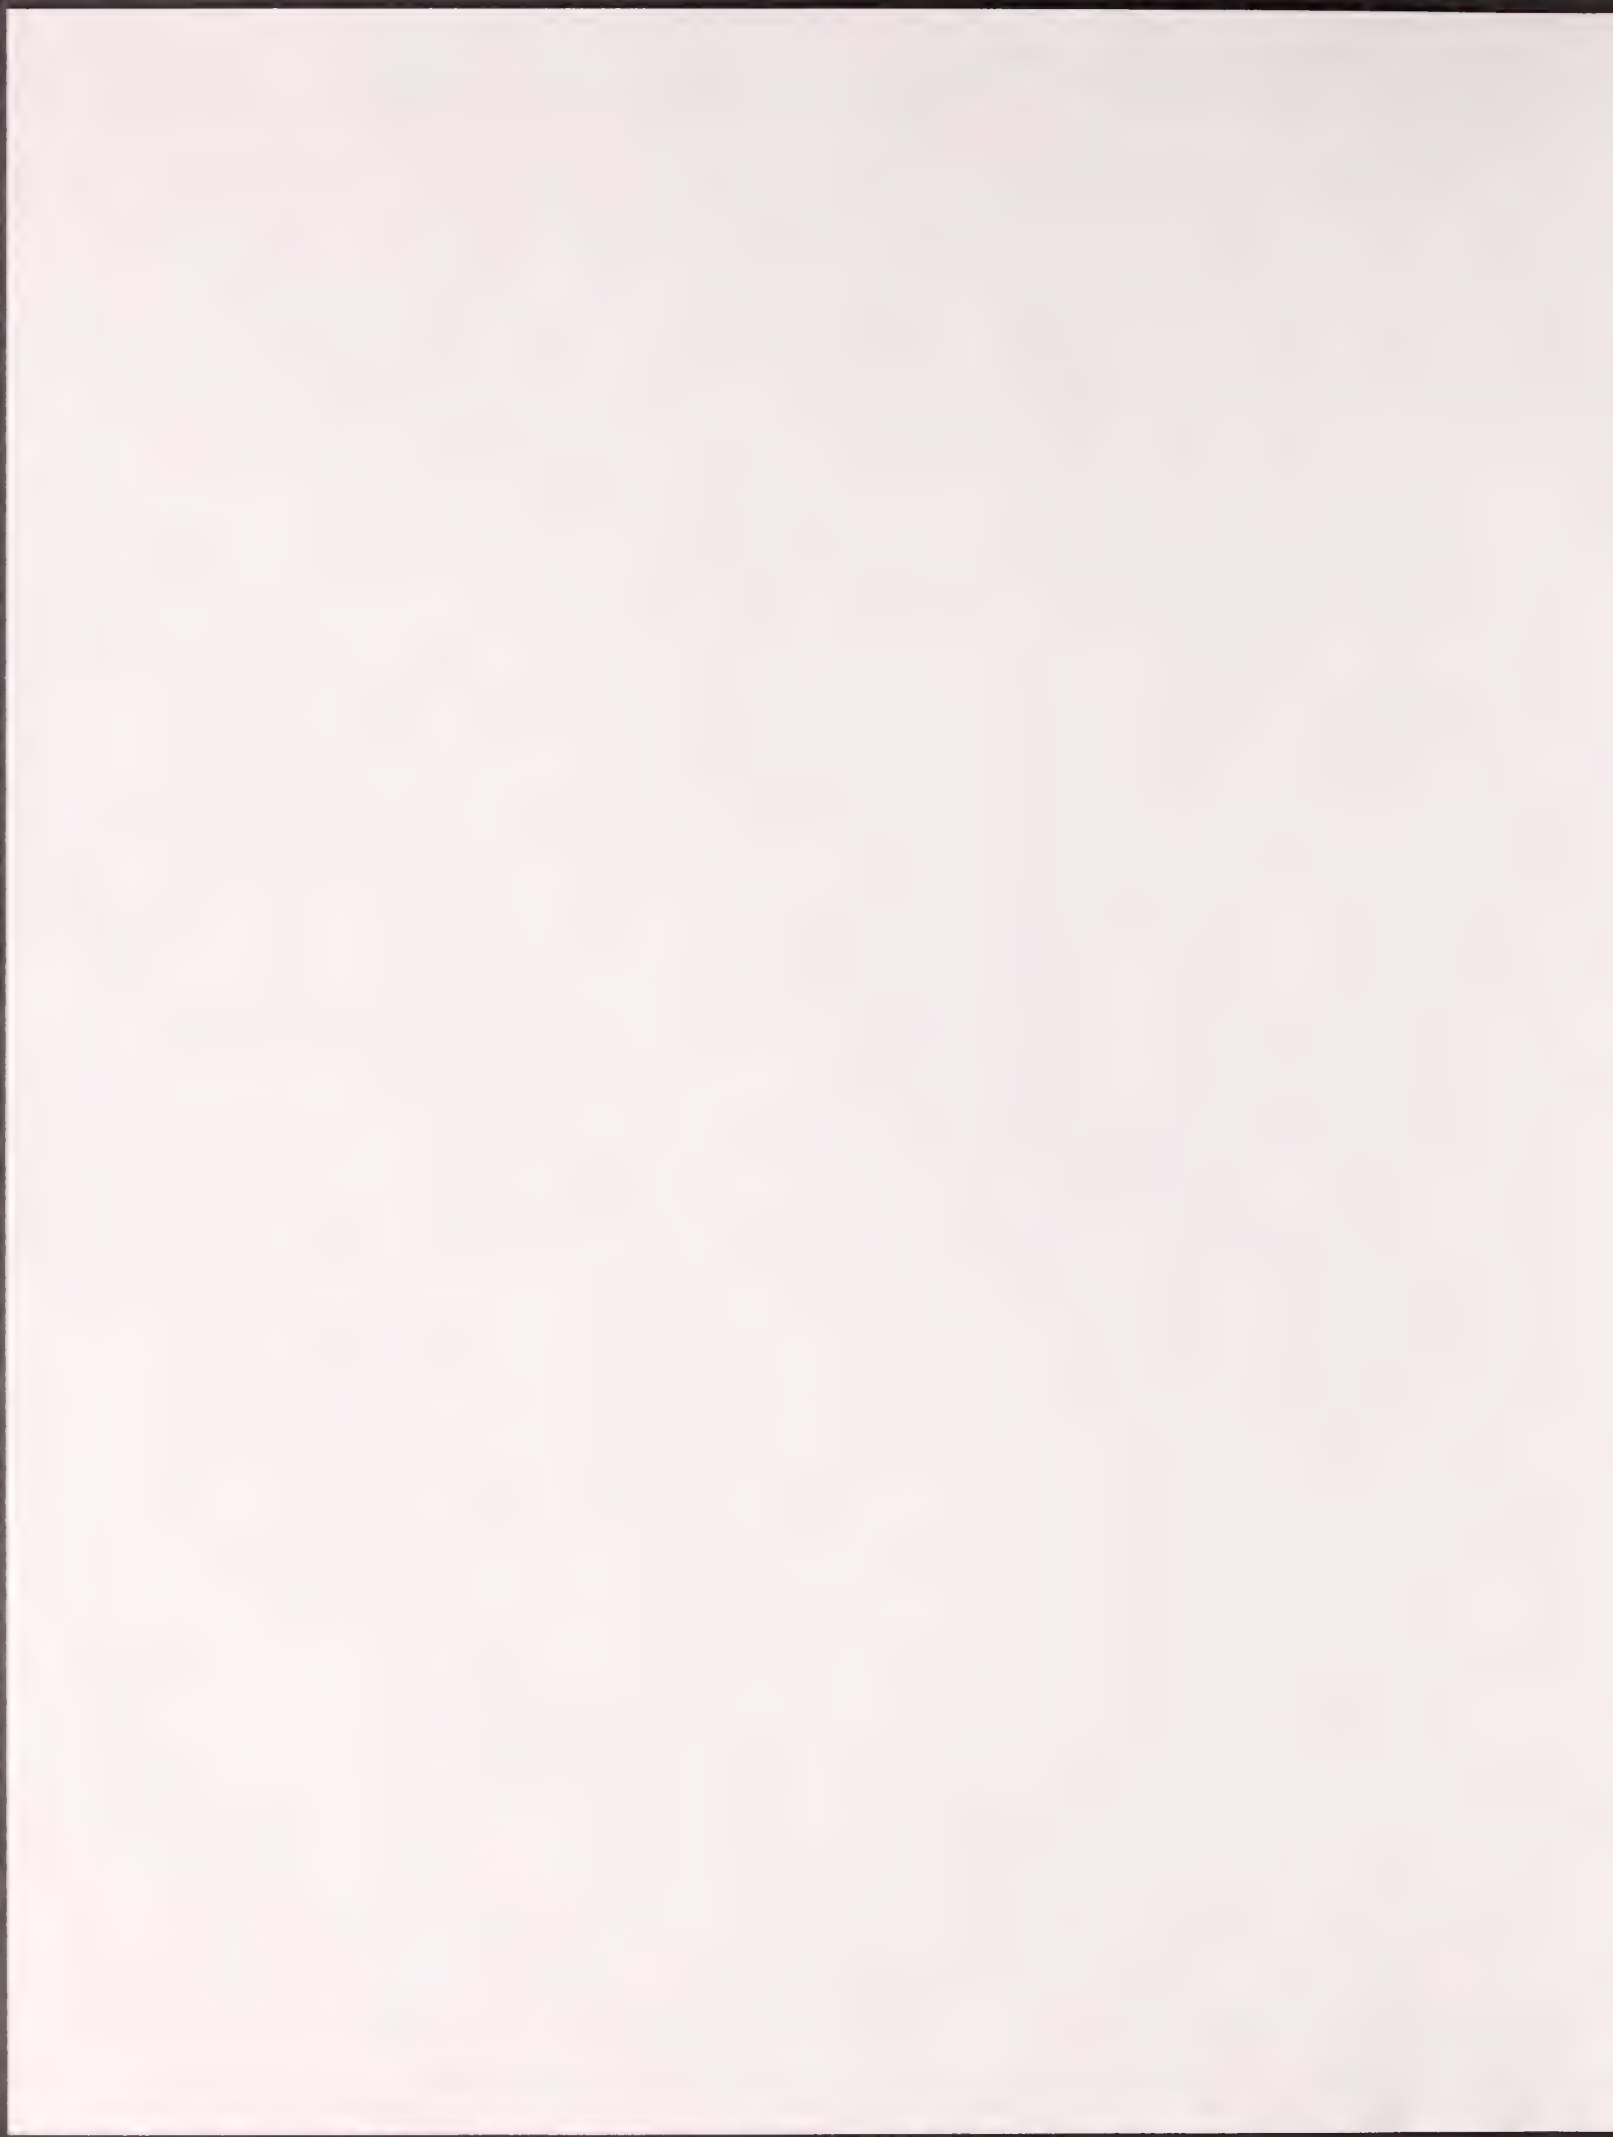

When he was 19 years of age his parents moved to Napanee and three years later Mr. Parks, who had a yearning for the railway business, went to Deseronto, where he secured a position as conductor on the suburban train, which was operated by the Rathbun Company and ran from Deseronto to connect with the main line, which was only a few miles north of Deseronto. He remained in this position for some time after which he secured a position as conductor on the then Bay of Quinte Railway, which ran from Deseronto to Napanee and thence to Tweed and northern points. In later years he was conductor on the run from Kingston to Napanee and thence to Tweed and return. He never held any other position but conductor and the manager of the Bay of Quinte Railway for many years was the late H. B. Sherwood of Napanee.

When this line was eventually absorbed by the Canadian National Railways, Mr. Parks continued for some time and about twelve years ago superannuated after being continuously in the service between forty-five and fifty years. For some time after his retirement he resided in Kingston and several years ago came to Napanee to reside with his sister, Mrs. George Greer, who is the last surviving member of a family of five.

During the years he resided here he made six trips to California to visit his son, J. H. Parks, who is publicity agent for one of the best known drug firms in the United States. About two years ago his illness began but he was up and around most of the time and greatly enjoyed motor trips as well as visits from friends in town. About seven weeks ago he went to his bed and for the past two days his condition had been very critical.

While residing in Deseronto he was made a member of Craig Masonic Lodge and retained his membership ever since. Masons from Deseronto and Napanee were in attendance at the funeral. He was also a member of the Brotherhood of Conductors. He was a life-long Conservative and an adherent of Grace United Church. Two sons passed away when they were quite young, as well as two brothers, William Parks and Albert

MRS. SAMUEL PARKS

The funeral of Eva May Meyers, wife of Samuel Parks, was held at her late residence on April 3, 1957. The service was conducted by her pastor, Rev. D. Harris, of Bath.

Mrs. Parks was born in the Hawley district and was a life-long resident of that vicinity. She was the daughter of the late James Meyers, and was the last of her family. She was one of the first members of Hawley United Church. Mrs. Parks attended church there before her marriage and was active in church work as long as health permitted.

She was predeceased by a daughter, Mrs. Herschel Snider (Lorena) 11 years ago, also three sisters and a brother. She leaves to mourn her husband, two daughters, Mrs. Gladys Cooper of Belleville, and Mrs. Wilkie Seeley (Lela) of Bath, also a number of grandchildren.

Mrs. Parks passed away after an illness of several years. She had been in failing health for some time, but the end came rather suddenly on March 31.

I received the package and read it thoroughly through and I am satisfied and grateful. It has I hope been a project that you have worked at and enjoyed over the years. So many memories and articles and information of the past has slipped away from us through disinterest and illiteracy. This letter I hope finds you in good health.

I thank you.

Mr. St. C. Beulcigh

I have been informed you have considerable Family tree material of Lennox and Addington County pioneer families.

I have endeavored to do some research back into my Family name Parks and so far have run into a Blank Wall. The little information I have at my finger tips at the present time.

my Father's name.

Charles Sidney Parks (1871 - 1938)
My Grandfather. William Henry Parks (1838-9-1891-2)
They were both born on the same farm at Hay Bay. My Grandfather had two brothers.
Milo and Elias

From information received from Miss Hazel Van Alstine of Wapauce there was a son Milo born to Lyrenus and Elizabeth Parke on Jan. 18 - 1831. Although in the ~~list~~ list 65 she sent to me there are several records of marriages of women by the name of Parks but no marriages by male members

I am writing to you to see if you have any information on the Parks Family. I have numerous cousins in and around Vaponee but I can receive no information from them as they do not know.

Thanks you.

Walter J Parks.

Mr. Walter R. Forte,
2479 Locust Ave.,
Niagara Falls, Ont.

Dear Mr. Forte:

This will reply to your letter of April last., regarding your family questions.

I have an extensive file on the Fort family, which I have reviewed to see if I can be of help. I find that it is possible, though not proven, that your great-grandfather was Elias Fort, born about 1770.
This was his, among others, your file and name. At the same time you must remember that file and name were common given names in the Fort family.
Therefore, further investigation appears necessary to prove relationship.
I can suggest review of land records of the County of Niagara; I look for will of father in the same way; also a review of the census records of 1851, 1861 and 1871. If these records are of sufficient definiteness, as they usually are, then it is easy to trace the Fort line back to England before 1600, which would I hope be of help to you.

Expenses involved in proving the point would not be too great. It is worth a visit to the Registry Office in Niagara, where, from an incl. fee, a search can be made for land records and wills. Also, census records can be obtained from the Archives in Ottawa for a small fee, not more than five dollars. It would appear that money should cover all expense. This I can do for you, if you are so inclined. Otherwise, you had better take off a few more and do the work yourself.

Wishing you success in your search, I remain,

Yours truly,

HCB

Abstract of the Will of Elias Parks

Dated ~~15 July~~, 1837 7 December, 1836

Probed 15 July 1837.

Elias Parks, of Township of Frederickburgh, Midland District, Province of Upper Canada

1. All lawful debts be paid out of my goods and chattels.
2. The rest of goods and chattels I leave at the discretion of my Executors to dispose of as they think best for my family in supporting them, while young.
3. I will my homestead farm to my faithful wife, being East Lot No. Eight and west quarter of Lot number Ten in the Third Concession of Frederickburgh, to her use until my youngest son arrives at the full age of twenty one years. Should she remain my widow that length of time, but if she marries previous to the above time, then she is to receive one cow, four sheep, bed and bedding together with other furniture sufficient to keep house; and the above named farm to be rented until my youngest son arrives at full age of twenty one, the said Rent to be divided by my Executors to all my children, male and female, and when none become of age viz: Wm., Elias, Sam., John Fourshee, William Henry Parks, they are to have my homestead farm, to be equally divided there and share alike to them and their heirs forever.
- 4 And for the due fulfilment of this my last Will and Testament, I appoint my wife Sarah Parks, ~~Executive~~ and David Parks and John Sils, Executors, all of Frederickburgh.

PARKS

Dear Dr. Burleigh,

This summer seems to be flying by,
I hope that you and your family are keeping well in spite of the heat.

I am still trying to get Cyrenius Parks' family straightened out. I know that I should come to Bath and look up the information myself but I would appreciate it if you will answer just one question for me.

At a Toronto U.E. Meeting I met a Dr. Walters who said that he was a Member of The Bay of Quinte Branch and that his U.E.
Ancestor was Barnard Cole and his wife was a Charlotte Parks. I am unable to figure that out. Was she a sister of Cyrenius?
According to Charlotte Parks' (daughter) petition for land Huffman is given as her married name.
I have sent for a copy of the petition in order to check the exact wording.

How does Charlotte Parks fit into the family of DR. Walters ?

I found the information that I was looking for re the Parks Church on Hay Bay. It was built in 1860 and closed in 1890 because the congregation outgrew the building.

Thank you for your help,

Sincerely yours,

Replied 9 Aug/72

Mr. Walter T. Parker,
2473 Locus Ave.,
Niagara Falls, Ont.

Dear sir:

I am enclosing notes on the Parke-Parks family which I have gleaned from many sources. All of it is authentic, I can assure you. There may be minor errors, most of which are not my fault. I have merely copied what the records tell. Some of these records, particularly those of a military nature, were copied by civil servants from the originals in England. This fact may have lead to errors in copying. One error which might well be corrected is the given name of the father of Gyrenias. I have given you the sources from which these came. You can look them up, if you wish.

I have delayed sending this material because I had asked a researcher in Ottawa to look for Parks in the Census of 1851 in Fredericton. This, unfortunately, has not reached me, likely because of delay produced by other work or by the heat of the past two weeks. If, when it comes, it adds anything to the story, I shall send it on to you.

I feel confident that you have certainly had your money's worth in what I enclose. As far as I am concerned, it is the work of more than thirty years in delving into the background of our early Loyalist pioneers. If you are satisfied, I shall be grateful.

Yours sincerely,

AFTER A FASHION

by Zena Cherry

Bon bons to psychedelic sounds

fully wash them by hand. I wonder where they are now.

In 1930 in the depth of the Depression, my father, with foresight, bought an old house nobody wanted on a sizeable lot on Bloor and Avenue Road.

After remodelling (the main crossbeam was garnered from the old railway station) the strictly residential area had its first restaurant. A couple of years later he added another room (all designed by architects Marani and Morris) plus Toronto's first Tea Garden. I watered the flowers. It also had the city's first automatic electric eye doors, a minor sensation at the time.

The Park Plaza next door was then just a shell, available to anyone who wanted it. My father considered buying it for back taxes but the thought of a rumored underground river gnawing at the foundation frightened him off. Years later when fate and the TTC put the subway through our basement, the river was discovered a few doors west. We still own the property, now leased to a parking lot.

The restaurant flourished even during the Depression.

It did well enough to send me as a boarder to Upper Canada ($750 a year, maid service and laundry included) and thence to McGill, my three sisters, through Haver-gal, and enabled my father to set up an educational trust for his grandchildren—two are currently at Vassar and Princeton, two more in Athens will attend schools in England.

My father was keen on university education, having had little formal schooling himself. He left his small mountain village near Sparta in his early teens—his father was a big husky shepherd who slept in the hills. To get out, by God, he must have walked or ridden a donkey because during a recent pilgrimage to try to find a church he helped endow, my rented Fiat and I almost gave up the ghost on those roads.

When I finally arrived, I did find the church, and one lone soul, the priest. I later realized he was a first cousin. I still have an incredible 90-year-old aunt near Sparta who has never worn shoes. Too uncomfortable.

At any rate the Thirties and Forties were happy years on Bloor Street and my father was fond of the university students who were a large part of the clientele. Generations of students used to come into the back room after proms and parties for milk shakes, sandwiches and sodas.

Their favorite pastime was blowing the covers off drinking straws so they'd land in a large Art Nouveau chandelier, shaped like a flying saucer, high up in the middle of the room. Thunderous applause would greet every successful blow. Since then, the entertainment tastes of the young have become more sophisticated.

Our company now also has two restaurants in the Don Mills Centre—The Artifactory and the Coach 'n' Four in addition to Diana's Yorkdale. Joe Bird's which adjoins our downtown store, is a loose facsimile of an 1840 tavern near that site.

This 60th year we opened Cattle Country at Humber-town Plaza in the Kingsway and finally received our liquor licence (How long, oh Lord, how long).

It is the reconstruction of a 30-year-old barn which we found near Madoc. We had it dismantled and more or less put back together again.

We've filled it with early pine, Old West artifacts, antique cutters and wagons. My prized ice container at the bar is a mammoth soup kettle from the War of 1812. The discotheque downstairs is called The Next Concession, with a super sound system presided over by Shaky Jake Coats...

From France we have imported five wines with our own Diana's label.

It's a long way from bon bons and sipping straws to psychedelic sights and sounds and French wines.

Thank you for your interest.

(Signed) George G. Boukydis.

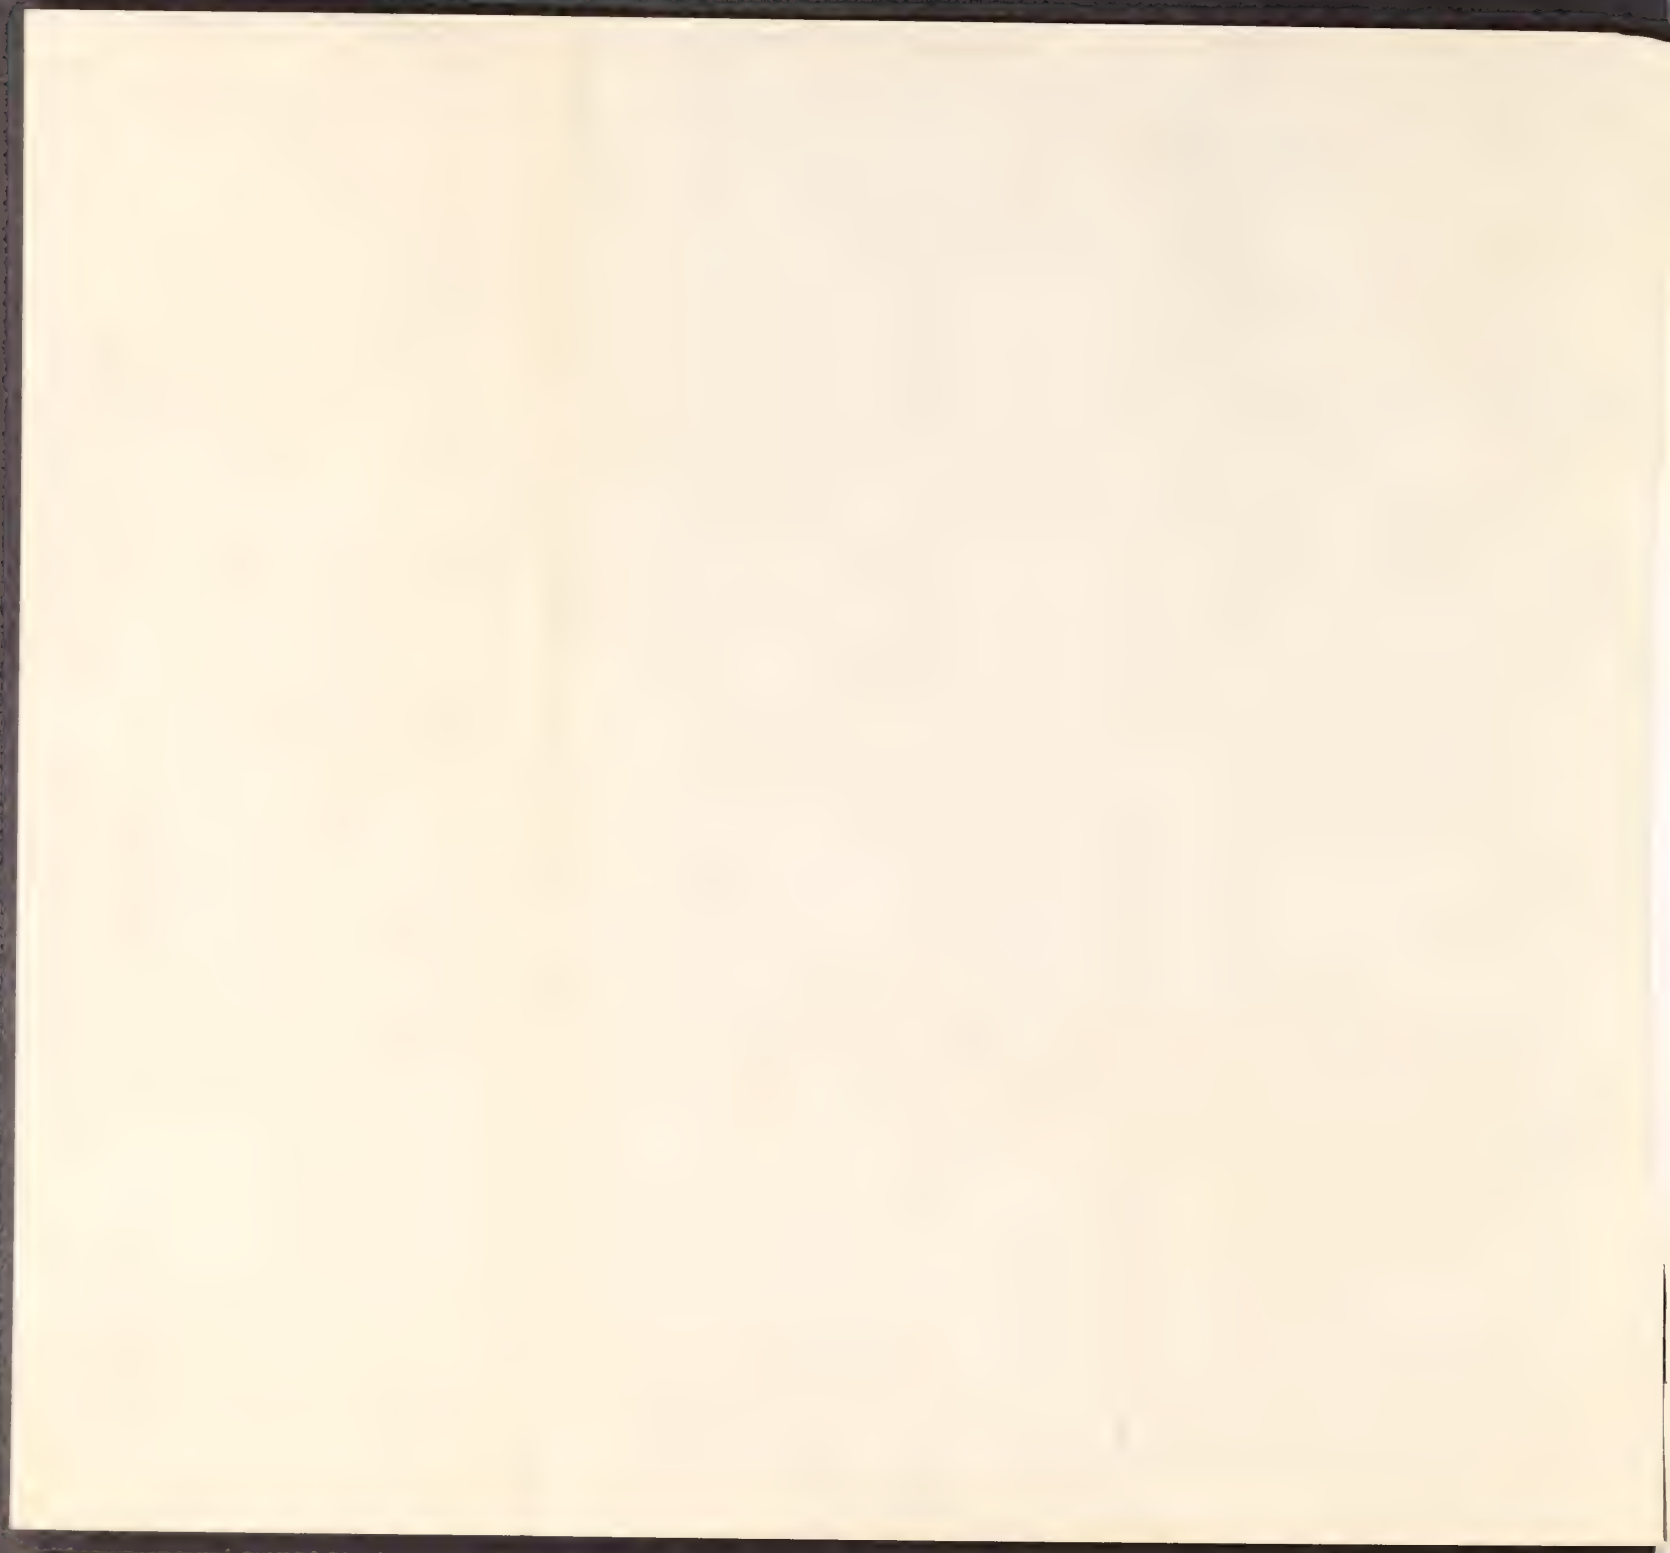

A request from Ruby Parke Anderson, who is compiling biographies of persons named Park or Parke.

"My Parke Scrapbook Vol. III, pages 116-7 gives some Parkes who went to Canada after the Revolutionary War. One, Cyrenius Parke, born in 1753 in Preston, Conn., died in 1827 in Hay Bay, Ontario. He married Elizabeth, daughter of Jacob Huffman.

"They had 20 children. They were Elizabeth, Nathaniel, Sarah, Cornelius, Joseph, James, Deborah, Archibald, Florinda, John, Cyrenius, James, Elias, Margaret, Daniel, Charlotte, David, Hannah, Susannah, Mylo. Mylo received the homesite.

"I would appreciate hearing from any of their Parke descendants."
